Boy, 9, Killed 2 Pals Injured On Toboggan

RED DEER, Jan. 13.—(AP)—A nine-year-old boy was killed and his two companions badly injured Friday at 3 p.m. when their toboggan went over the road in front of a heavily loaded truck.

KILLED INSTANTLY

Billy Parsons, son of Dr. and Mrs. W. E. Parsons was killed instantly. Stewart McDonald, son of Mrs. Margaret McDonald, received a fractured pelvis, ruptured spleen and possible other injuries. His condition is reported serious.

Maurice Leslie, whose sister works at the Provincial Training School here, received a broken leg and is reported in good condition.

Driver of the truck was James T. Morrison who farms just west of the city.

RIDING TOGETHER

RCMP investigating said the three youngsters were riding together on the toboggan after school and apparently hurtled across the sidewalk and onto the road where they must directly in the path of the oncoming truck. The two and one half ton truck was loaded with a grain trailer.

An inquest will be held today. Dr. Parsons, father of the deceased, is in Toronto attending a medical conference.

Scores Hunt In Wyoming For Killer

GURNEYS, Wyo., Jan. 13.—(UP)—Scores of officers searched Wyoming today for a man they suspected of killing a woman who was reported to have been killed near here.

Thousands of police and FBI agents in every state west of the Mississippi were looking for the 25-year-old ex-convict from Joplin, Mo., who has eight murders definitely charged up to him and possibly two more.

The main search area, however, was in northern states, beginning east to Minnesota, where a man or men resembling Clark had been reported in the past few days.

Officers in the Mexican desert, south of El Centro, Calif., reported to believe that Cook ended officers searching for him there.

BULLET HOLES

The alarm for Cook was sounded here yesterday after two men reported that they had seen a man resembling Clark, wearing a black-grey Plymouth, travelling west on U.S. highway 26, which refused to let them pass. They said the car had two bullet holes in the rear.

The car resembled one in which a man matching Cook's description was seen by a deputy at McCook, Neb., two days before the wounded deputy fired two shots into the car as it sped away. It was believed that the car was similar to that found in the southwest.

Later, two witnesses here reported that the man in the Plymouth entered their restaurant and asked the way to Lusk, Wyo. The witnesses ran for help and the driver sped south toward Gurneys.

A MOTHER'S THANKFULNESS:

'I'd Rather Have Son Lose Arms, Legs Than Be In Korea'

BATTLE CREEK, Mich., Jan. 13.—(UP)—A thankful mother said today she'd rather have her son lose his arms and legs than stay in Korea.

"I think the amputations are better than the uncertainty and if he is still a nervous wreck," said Mrs. Hubert E. Reeves Sr., whose son, five years ago, was reported to be in the southwest.

"After all, his life was spared," she said.

In 19 days or two, army doctors at Percy Jones General Hospital will amputate the fingers and thumb of the 19-year-old G.I. who had the fingers of his right hand below the middle joint.

Hubert Jr. was reported in excellent condition after the first three-hour operation. Doctors predicted he will be able to walk again on artificial limbs in six months.

"I know it would come out all right," Mrs. Reeves said after her first visit to the operating room. "Both of us left it up to God. We know He would do what's best."

ordained infantry and aerial assault on Hill 267-50 called for its height in metres. The hill on the northeast edge of the perimeter, was taken by the allied troops Friday but they withdrew from it Friday night.

Correspondent Harvard said that the battle after the counter-attack began results had not been reported. The allied forces had taken the hill and light bombers pounded the Reds.

The United Nations' main supply line had been cut by the Reds. The Reds had taken 14 to 20 miles south of Wonsu. No ground troops were sent to the Red attack early Saturday.

BELOW ZERO

A division spokesman said the Reds evidently had pulled back into small villages south of Wonsu to regroup and find shelter against the biting cold.

The bloody fighting was in winter as cold as any experienced on the bleak Changjin-Hungnam front in North Korea. Temperatures were down to 25 below zero.

Korean Reds opened the attack before dawn with small "Ban" attacks on the 2nd Division camp. By noon they had hurled up to 10,000 troops against the army. Allied soldiers just south of Wonsu, Korean Reds were reported to be in the area.

REDS BUILDING UP

As the Korean Reds struck the northernmost UN position in Korea, other Korean and Chinese Communist forces swept around Wonsu in the strength of two divisions in a wide enveloping movement. At ready some were cutting in behind the hand-picked fighters who were reported to be in the area.

Cut of $2,644 For Taxpayer

OTTAWA, Jan. 13.—(CP)—The Income Tax Appeal Board, in its judgment made public today, virtually ordered the revenue department to cease a practice of assessing income tax for more than 12 months at any one time.

It granted the appeal of Harold McKay, a 42-year-old salesman, for a reduction of $2,644 in his 1948 taxable income.

The case arose out of the sale of his coal business in April, 1948. His fiscal year ended in March and he paid income for that 12-month period.

However, when he sold his business the following month, the revenue department lumped all his income for the 12-month period and added $2,644 to his previous 1948 income of $5,000.

This was not justified, said the board, nor was the revenue department insisting in concluding that when two fiscal periods ended in the same calendar year, it could lump the two assessments into one.

Canadians Said To Lack Pride

MONTREAL, Jan. 13.—(CP)—Lack of clear-cut international policies, of a distinctive flag and of a national emblem, have Canadians without any national pride, Rene Gobeil told the Young Progressive Conservative Association here Friday.

Quebec organizer for the party, Mr. Gobeil said the Liberal Federal government is doing little to give Canada a national emblem, a distinctive flag, prerogatives of a people with strong national aspirations.

"Don't worry, I can get along without any flag," he told her and smiled wryly. "I'll be wonderful when the pain is over with."

New Government, CCF Amity Seen

New Group Handed Bouquet By Alberta Labor Minister

Alberta's minister of industries and labor and a member of the executive of the Canadian Congress of Labor Unions today handed a bouquet to a two-day convention of the Industrial Federation of Labor of Alberta got underway in this city.

The CCLU is one of several signs of a new harmony between the provincial government and the CCLU union in Alberta.

The minister, J. L. Robinson handed them an orchid when he reported only six out of 41 men requested for conciliation last year were made to the department by CCLU clerks.

"And only three of those were to arbitration," he beamed. "That's a fine picture."

UFL speakers said a "coolness" had existed between the Social Credit government and their union in past years.

But it seemed to be all over with the suggestion from the CCLU by A. Chappell, that an "informal" delegation from the convention by its request to Premier C. E. Manning at the end of the two-day session.

No announcement was made by delegates on whether or not the premier would be visited.

The year just past was a year of high employment and fair wages," Dr. Robinson said. "And there is no cause for concern over seasonal employment this year."

WORK FOR SENIORS. Providing work for older job seekers was "a bad problem," he said.

"Baldness and grey hair may spell economic disaster for the older worker," he said.

The importance of the aging battle was this: Wonsu is a rail and road hub that controls the avenue to advance or retreat through the Sohak range.

It was clear today that what may be called the Battle of Sohak is increasing in scope," said an Eighth Army spokesman.

"The issue is whether the enemy can force the passes of the mountain range."

CCF membership in the ten years of its history had increased from 70,000 to "close to 400,000."

He said a labor organization's work was no longer just a matter of collective bargaining for wages and working conditions.

The modern labor body had a responsibility for recognizing the expert economists, publicists, publicists and educational departments.

KNOW ECONOMICS. "The unions now know much about the economics of a company as the business," he said.

Part of the CCLU's political action was the publication of the famous "Declaration of Political Economic Philosophy," he reported.

The seven-page brochure contained a list of demands that has been mailed by the CCLU to government, business and religious leaders throughout the country.

Chappell said a reply had been received from Premier Manning expressing approval of the "Declaration." That was one of the things that led him to believe better relationships could be established with the government.

"It is all on common ground matters."

Delegates were advised by Roy Johns, president of the Edmonton Labor Council, to deduct union dues from their taxable income when filing income tax returns.

He said the dues deductible after the convention had endorsed a resolution urging the federal government to amend the Income Tax Act so they would be.

The convention was still left with the majority of 62 resolutions to be dealt with today. On the books.

Rome's Vicar Dies at 79

VATICAN CITY, Jan. 13.—(AP)—Francesco Cardinal Marchetti-Selvagiani, 79, died today at the Catholic College of Cardinals, died today.

Cardinal Marchetti-Selvagiani, a native of Rome, received the red hat from Pope Pius XI in 1908.

In addition to his duties as dean of the College, he was also vicar-general for the city of Rome, secretary of the Supreme Congregation of the Holy Office, and prefect of the Cerebral Congregation.

His death raises the number of vacancies in the College of Cardinals to 16.

Cardinal Marchetti-Selvagiani had been ill for a long time and had undergone several operations.

He was ordained in 1906 and had similar positions of Secretary of State in 1918. On his elevation to the purple, he became bishop of Ostia and Frascati.

Sask. To Be Major Oil Producer, Says Douglas

REGINA, Jan. 13.—(CP)—Premier T. G. Douglas said last night in a radio broadcast that "everything points to Saskatchewan becoming a major producer of oil in the course of the next few years."

Speaking in the CBC free-time provincial address series, the premier said he "was convinced that Saskatchewan is on the threshold of a great period of expansion and development."

Mr. Douglas said the value of the province's 1950 mineral production surpassed that of either Manitoba or Alberta.

"Crude oil," he produced over $360,000 worth of minerals and we can be sure that when uranium comes into the production, as they will in the course of the next year, this figure will be materially increased.

"Perhaps the most spectacular development has been in the production of oil. In 1948, we produced only 14,000 barrels of oil and in 1950, we produced more than 1,000,000."

Premier Douglas said it was "generally agreed" that 40 per cent of Western Canada's potential oil-bearing structure is in Saskatchewan.

The province is approaching a stage of industrial development which will see a "tremendous increase in the utilization of industrial resources."

However, Mr. Douglas said he saw agriculture will always be the province's basic industry.

He suggested expansion would come in the processing of wood products and further development of natural resources.

Present industrial progress in the province, said the premier, had indicated the province's economic future, private enterprise, co-operative enterprise and public enterprise can work harmoniously together with a single economy.

His death raises the number of vacancies in the College of Cardinals to 16.

Cardinal Marchetti-Selvagiani had been ill for a long time and had undergone several operations.

Peace Bid's Doom Seen

LAKE SUCCESS, N.Y., Jan. 13.—(AP)—Soviet last-minute Russian delaying tactics, the United Nations expects to dispatch its latest-learned peace bid to Communist China today.

There is no doubt of approval by the veto-free political committee, but Russia might delay a vote until Monday.

Diplomats feel that if Russia let the offer—which promises the Peking regime a conference on Far Eastern problems in return for a cease-fire in Korea—pass without a fight, it may preface acceptance by Communist China.

Peking has ignored all previous UN peace efforts, however, and most observers think this one will suffer the same fate.

MADRID, Spain, Jan. 13.—(AP)—An authoritative source said yesterday that Gen. Dwight D. Eisenhower soon will confer here with Generalissimo Franco.

However, Mr. Douglas said he saw agriculture will always be the province's basic industry.

Impossible Conditions

There is one urgent duty facing the nine-member civic centre committee recently appointed by the city council. That duty is to secure an understanding with the legislature that any subsequent offers of outside capital to develop any area in this city should be controlled by the impossible conditions that were imposed on the proposals of the First New Amsterdam Corporation.

If the resolution of the legislature which demanded a two-thirds vote of the burgesses to approve this proposal still stands in application to other proposals, this committee should see to it that the resolution is revoked.

If the resolution does not apply to subsequent proposals, the committee should secure some legislative assurance that any further development proposal shall be made to require no more than a simple majority of electors.

In other words, this iniquitous provision of the legislature outrageously flouted the will of 82 per cent of the burgesses and probably 85 per cent of the electors. The will of the civic centre area, bounded by 101A and 104 avenues between 99 and 100 streets, is still a major problem in this community.

It can continue its course of obsolescence, dragging the entire downtown area down with it, or it can be made to set a new tone for that area and to supply urgently needed parking space and public buildings.

If such a project, commensurate with the needs and dignity of Edmonton, can be financed by Edmonton capital, all well and good.

But if it must be financed by outside capital, as everything indicates it must be, then the dangerous and ridiculous handicap against outside capital, as instanced in the two-thirds vote, should be removed without delay.

Claim of British Columbia Indians

The suddenly advanced claims of British Columbia Indians for payment for land which was acquired from them in the past century without recompense is startling and unexpected.

But the Indian organizations produce what appears to be unimpeachable evidence of the justice of their contention.

They say that the province has acquired no less than 348,000 square miles of land which rightfully belongs to them. And they support their demand for payment with proclamations of King George III and of Queen Victoria ordering the crown to pay for the land.

The Indians of B.C. contend that they were never conquered and that the acquisition of their land by the whites was a matter of business arrangement and not of gain by force of arms.

What is overlooked by the B.C. Indians in their claim, as is overlooked in the current stuporous claims made by the Indians of California, is that what is owing to them, if anything, is not the value of the land today but the value of the land at the time of its acquisition.

For the Indians surely have no moral right to demand a part of the present value which has been enhanced by roads, railways, bridges, cultivation and other instances of the white man's diligence.

For example, the B.C. Indians state that the site of the city of Victoria is the property of their tribes.

But the value of what was actually taken from them is not related to the value which has been created by white enterprise.

It is needful and necessary that scrupulous justice be done the Indians in all these claims.

The fact that they are in a minority increases the case for fair dealing.

But there should be no suggestion that three Indian generations, living in comparative idleness, should reap the fruit of three generations of white industry and development.

Epiphany, the Missionary Season

The season of Epiphany, which continues until Septuagesima, falling this year on January 21, is a season devoted intensively to the missionary work of the Church.

Epiphany is the revealing of Christ to the Gentiles. And the story of the Magi, carrying their gifts of gold and frankincense and myrror over mountain and plain to the Christ Child in the stable, reminds us of our duty, laid down by Jesus, to carry Christ's gift of salvation and of eternal life to every corner of the world.

This is no theoretical duty, but an actual one.

Christ spoke plainly of the "one flock" and the "one shepherd." Both Matthew and Mark close their respective Gospels with the actual words of Jesus:

"Go ye into all the world and preach the gospel to every creature."

The missionary duty of the Christian, then, is no nebulous or hypothetical thing. It is based on an actual command of our Lord Himself.

Now almost every Christian communion exercises an evangelistic effort both at home and abroad.

Missionary funds contribute to the Christian enlightenment of people in every remote corner of Canada and in all the far countries of the world.

The obvious way to discharge the missionary duty inherent in the Epiphany season is to give special consideration to these funds and to swell them as greatly as possible.

But there is another missionary duty which should lie heavily upon the conscience of every Christian.

And that is the missionary duty borne by every Christian to his immediate neighbor.

There should be a special duty upon everyone, in this Epiphany season, to do everything possible to persuade friends, acquaintances and neighbors to attend a Christian Church.

It is not always wise for laymen to labor too hard arguing friends and neighbors into the view of Christianity. But the layman cannot labor too hard to bring those friends and neighbors under the influence of the sacraments and into the field of Christian teaching.

This is the immediate and urgent Christian duty of everyone during the Epiphany season.

ODDS AND ENDS

Two Kinds of Thinking That Divide the World

One of the most encouraging developments to arise from the present world crisis is the suggestion of the Arab League that the Moslem and Christian worlds should unite to resist the aggression of Russia's "atheistic materialism."

The proposal comes from Abdel Rahman Azab, secretary-general of the Arab League, and was issued last week in Rome.

Every Christian communion in the world should give this offer grave and thoughtful consideration.

The Moslem and Christian religions are as far apart as the poles with respect to their differing formulas for attaining spiritual salvation.

The Christian faith is based on certain facts which the Moslems refuse to accept.

Both believe in the Fatherhood of the same God.

Both believe in the spiritual life.

And the reason they can make common ground against Russia is that while Moslem and Christian may be miles apart in their doctrinal teachings, they are a greater billions of miles from the gross materialism of the Communists.

Vital Fact

If I were asked to identify the most momentous spiritual development of the past 500 years

I would answer that this proposed union between Islam and Christianity is that development.

Just 601 years ago the Christian world, embroiled in the seventh and last crusade to retake the Holy Land, was warring with the year 1096 to that date, Christians believed it was a holy duty to impel duty to kill Moslems.

Moslems believed they went straight to heaven if they killed Christians.

And now, out of that dreadful background of savage intolerance and slaughter has evolved the strangely beautiful conception that God's children of all ages and creeds, should unite to preserve His law of love on this tormented planet.

After 601 years, the blood-soaked roads of Palestine have flowered.

That flower is the long-delayed thought that the common Fatherhood of God must be recognized no matter by Whom or in what manner His truth was revealed.

Vital Fact

There is another tremendous advance in this proposal. That advance lies in recognition of the fact that the world is genuinely divided, not by many religions, but by two totally incompatible and irreconcilable types of thinking.

For the truth is that the difference between the spiritual thinking and materialistic thinking is not so much how far Moslem and Christian and Buddhist and Brahmin may be from each other as it is the difference between the spiritual and the material.

The atheist is more of a forerunner on this earth created by God than is a theist. The theist is more of a theist than a theist.

The time has come, under pres-

Columnist Sends Along His 'Hello'

Before putting back into the column the message of good cheer, seems you've got to be an invalid now and then to know how many thoughtful people there are about you.

I have had what the doctors call virus pneumonia. This can be a pretty nasty business, but, fortunately, I found it a little full of life. The same illness has an ominous ring to it, too, earning you more sympathy than you deserve (and an extra week away from the office). I must dream of a deep, dark lethargy, which causes naturally to me anyway.

My moments of pain, such as it was, were limited to a strict schedule of 10 a.m. and 4.30 p.m. when an efficient and charming representative of the Victorian Order of Nurses appeared, briskly in the bed with shots of streptomycin. My days were spent reading and turning the other cheek.

Something More Ominous

Indeed, the three-week season would have been a good deal less all at except that it exposed me to something with a more ominous ring to it. One day my doctor dropped in, bearing some X-ray pictures of my chest. I could make nothing out of them. They looked like underwater pictures of an old soldier's crumpled uniform. However, they were less picturesque.

"Nothing to be alarmed about," he said. "I'm glad you've alerted my suspicions, but I don't think you have tuberculosis. There is a spot here, don't you think?"

Afterwards, when I thought about it, I wondered how many men and women have had their lives cleared suddenly in the light of a doctor's voice. I just saw a seemingly casual remark. The doctor's tone of voice was elaborately offhand, and my weakened condition it sounded like a tolling bell.

In the next couple of weeks I got straightened out on a lot of cobwebby mid-Victorian ideas about life and death. I was prepared to expound on that thesis here.

Optimistic Atmosphere

At the moment, I found a positive, optimistic outlook with everything as matter-of-fact as possible. I was sure that the one firm idea that the disease can and will be licked.

Still, however, I went on to a kind of diagnostic assembly line, with questionnaire, blood samples, X-rays and other tests. I had the strong and pleasant feeling of being in good hands.

Many New Industries Seek Location In City

Location of new industries in Edmonton during 1950, expected by Industrial Commissioner Graham Curtis to show a "considerable falling off," turned out exactly opposite.

Students On Postal Tour

Ten Beverly school pupils last night made a tour of the post office terminal as part of a prize they had won through a recent post office essay contest.

After an hour the 10 children: Marion Beal, Grade eight, Geraldine Beal, Grade seven, Faye Olsen, Grade six, Eugene Groulik, Grade five, Eliza Spauk, Grade four, George Karbanski, Grade four, Leroy Robinson, Grade three, Billy Brown, Grade three, Leon Foredorik, Grade seven, and Hazel Hagerdon, Grade eight, toured all departments of the building prior to receiving additional prizes.

These consisted of painted pictures of various scenes of distributing mail throughout the year, and personally addressed letters from the postmaster-general of Canada, W. J. Turnbull.

Postmasters H. W. Gregory of Edmonton and W. E. Curtis of Beverly made the presentations. P. B. Lawton, Beverly school principal, was also present.

Star Gazers Of Dominion Elect Dr. Beals Head

TORONTO, Jan. 12.—(CP)—Dr. Beals of Ottawa, the dominating astronomer, was elected National president of the Royal Astronomical Society of Canada last night at the annual general meeting. Vice-presidents are Dr. John F. Johnson of Toronto, and Leslie Garneau, Montreal.

In addition to the presidents of the society's 14 centres across the country, the following were elected: President, Dr. Beals; Vice-president, Dr. Johnson; Secretary, Dr. Garneau; Treasurer, Dr. G. M. Strum, Vancouver; and J. A. White, Winnipeg.

Stalin, Truman Illnesses Seen

LONDON, Oct. 12.—(CP)—Serious illness to Stalin and Truman, with resultant easing of Communist pressure and closer co-operation between Democrats and Republicans in the United States, were among predictions for 1951 by Arthur H. Rock, editor-in-chief of the London Free Press, to mark Kwanzaa yesterday.

Although claiming to be "innocently" to try to predict the happenings of 1951, Mr. Rock went further and forecast a year of uncertainty, but no world war. The cold war will continue, however, he said, with increasing tension.

Camrose Fire Looter Fined, Boy Reprimanded

RAYLE.—A Camrose resident was fined $50 and a juvenile received a severe reprimand in court Thursday on charges of looting during the $250,000 fire here last Dec. 26. RCMP stated other charges may be laid.

Harry Kiddine was fined the $50 for stealing a quantity of tea valued from the general store. The juvenile stated he didn't think he was doing wrong and that he was just "following the example of others."

RCMP investigation showed that there were considerable amounts of goods and foodstuffs from stores looted during the fire. The goods were piled in the street by volunteer workers who saved the goods from stores threatened by the blaze. The looting occurred before the RCMP posted special guards around the goods after the first thefts occurred.

Investigations were conducted by Corporal Dick McLeister of the Royal detachment.

Mayorality Race Tied In Berlin

BERLIN, Jan. 12.—(Reuters)—Mayor Ernst Reuter, Social Democrat, tied yesterday in a "photo-finish" mayoralty election in the West Berlin city assembly. The Free Democrats and Christian Democrats had joined together in sponsoring Reuter.

The assembly adjourned until next Thursday. Meanwhile, Reuter and Schreiber will start negotiations for a three-party coalition government for West Berlin.

Church Burns

MONTGOMERY, Ala. Jan. 12.—(AP)—Two firemen died last night in a blaze that left standing only the four second walls of Trinity Presbyterian church. Damage to the church was estimated at upwards of $150,000.

And prospects for 1951 "look very good, providing no general war breaks out."

In a written report to last night's organization meeting of the city's long-dormant Industrial Development Board, Mr. Curtis said the unsettled world conditions in the last six months had led him to expect a decided drop in number of new industrial enterprises setting up shop here.

Dealing with each of six industrial areas in the city, he listed firms which had either already located in them, or have agreed to build here before June 30.

In the Kingsway area between 111 and 118 avenues from 119 to 121 streets, four factories and 14 warehouses were listed. The factories are Weston Baking Ltd., Alberta Baking Company, MacDonald Street Meat and Roasting Company, and an unnamed nationally known concern with Canadian headquarters in Toronto.

Total factory and warehouse investment in this area will exceed $1,000,000 when completed, he said. Adjacent to that area, the CNR has leased a large tract of land west of 97 street between 125 and 127 avenues. Mr. Curtis listed 10 firms already operating, or planning to operate, on it.

"Owing to demand for industrial sites served by railway spurs, we are developing another industrial block in the packhouse area bounded by 79 and 87 streets, just east of Burns," he said.

Three acres of this has been taken by Western Precast Products Company, Ltd.

"In collaboration with City Planning, we are planning an industrial area on the South Side, to be served by 99 street east of the CPR, and south of 43 avenue."

Conservatives Will Take Organization

OTTAWA, Jan. 12.—(CP)—The Progressive Conservative party's committee on organization, composed of representatives of all provinces of Canada, will meet shortly after Parliament opens Jan. 22, it was announced yesterday.

Party headquarters issued the announcement for George Nowlan, president of the party's association and member of the Commons for the Nova Scotia constituency of Annapolis-King's.

To Resign Jan. 20

CALGARY, Jan. 12.—(CP)—Francis J. Francis of Calgary, President of the Alberta Central Credit Union, will resign at the annual meeting at Edmonton, Jan. 20. Francis announced he is resigning to devote more time to the Alberta Credit League of which he was recently elected president.

TV Contract For M. Truman Is Forecast

NEW YORK, Jan. 12.—(AP)—Margaret Truman was reported yesterday to have reached a tentative agreement with the National Broadcasting Company to appear on a dozen radio and television shows at a salary of between $2,000 and $3,000 for each performance.

The network would say only that a contract has not been signed yet, and neither Miss Truman nor her manager, James A. Davidson, could be reached for comment.

FAMOUS FUN-MAKERS, Marx Brothers, come out with some of their most ex-cruciatingly funny shenanigans in Lester Cowan production, "Love Happy," which is now playing at Rialto Theatre. Ilona Massey, Marion Hutton and Vera Ellen add romance to amusing comedy as girl friends of the three brothers, Chico, Harpo and Groucho.

Thrilling Story of Veteran Opens Today at Varscona

Independent Hollywood producer Stanley Kramer has done it again.

The man responsible for bringing to the screen two of the most talked about movies during the last year, "Home of the Brave," and "Champion," has come through with a third smash hit.

It's "The Men" which opens today at the Varscona Theatre.

"The Men" is a story of present day conditions of a young man returned from the war, crushed, defeated, hopeless, bitter, the pattern of his life destroyed. A young man who resents everything that has abandoned all will to live.

It is also the story of a girl filled with love for him, a girl whose undying love wins him back to the province of Canada and reality.

NEW STAR HAILED

In short, Kramer's newest hit is the story of the indomitable human spirit, the courage and will to rise above obstacles that seem insurmountable.

And not only has he come out with a new type story—but also with a sensational new film star. He is Marion Brande, who has been hailed by critics as the most vital talent to come to the stage in a generation following his performance of the now-famous Broadway play, "A Streetcar Named Desire."

Lovely Teresa Wright turns in one of the most sensitive performances for which she has become justly famous.

The castotype photography process, whereby sensitized paper is developed to produce negative was invented in 1841.

Marx. Bros. Back And In Love Now

Zany Trio Starring In Latest Rialto Hit

The Marx Brothers, absent for some time, are back—more slap-happy than ever in the film "Love Happy."

That's their latest hit which opened yesterday at the Rialto, and history is in the making. They're in love.

In the Lester Cowan production, Groucho, the detective, ardently woo's Ilona Massey. Chico makes love to singing star Marion Hutton, and Harpo musically carries on with dainty little dancing star Vera-Ellen.

The three brothers, in previous films, made a habit of using addresses only as comic foils, and were generally chasing scorned blondes, or deflating pompous donors.

CHANGE NEEDED

For years, Margaret Dumont, a statuesque brunette, was a fixture in their stage shows and motion pictures, playing an arrogant society woman with a tongue, and ever shocked at the many risqué jokes of the Marxes.

Producer Cowan realized the brothers needed a change in story, so he supplied each with a leading lady's name out with somewhat interesting and funny story.

First Television Theft Reported

TORONTO, Jan. 12.—(CP)—It may be the first theft of its kind in Canada. At least Toronto police listed it as their first case of theft of a television set from a private home.

They said housebreakers entered the home of Harry Clark while he was asleep yesterday for less than 90 minutes, and stole the set.

Producer Cowan realized the brothers needed a change in story, so he supplied each with a leading lady's name out with somewhat interesting and funny story.

Ian Maxwell Named Church President

Annual Meeting Held By Redeemer Lutheran Church

More colored sides of Bible stories will be used in Sunday school work at Redeemer Lutheran church during the coming year.

This was announced at the annual business meeting and election of officers held Wednesday evening at the church hall.

Ian Maxwell was elected president for the coming year. Other officers named were George Jones, secretary; Edwin Ulmer, treasurer; and Ulmer, financial secretary.

ELECTED

Elected to the board of elders were J. Hushagen, R. Burke, and A. Limer.

Contributions per member during 1950 were up 40 per cent from the previous year. It was discussed in the financial report. Discussion also centered on the $14,000 program built last year for $10,000 with labor donated by church members.

Membership now stands at 115. Average church attendance was up from 50 to 65 over the previous year.

Mission Work Talk Theme

Miss Betty Miller, a former Edmontonian on her first visit to Edmonton before sailing for London, will speak on a mission theme at Bethel Tabernacle on Sunday at 7:30 p.m.

After spending five years in missionary work in Mexico, Miss Miller recently completed an additional course of medical missionary training at the Bible Institute of Los Angeles. Her next field of mission work will be in the Anglo-Egyptian Sudan where she will minister under the auspices of the Sudan Interior Mission.

Miss Miller is a daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jas. M. Miller, now of Victoria, and formerly long-term residents at 1467-90th St. in Edmonton.

Church Club Hears Talk On Symbolism

WETASKIWIN, Jan. 13.—Taking the topic "Symbolism," Rev. F. E. Smith of Wesleyan Anglican Lutheran Church gave a short talk to the United Church Men's Club at their monthly get-together dinner meeting in the United Church Hall Wednesday evening.

Bringing out little known facts of the origins of church customs and even the layout of the church itself, Rev. Smith pointed out how some of customs and designs dated back to early Christian churches of Rome to the days when services were held in the tombs or catacombs of the city to escape the Roman persecution.

The meeting concluded with the announcement by Vice-President Jack Brown of the Men's Club that the club had been directed $200 by the Women's Auxiliary of the United Church to enable men to renovate the church hall.

Money Given

INNSVILLE, Jan. 12.—At the Legion executive meeting held Monday evening, the sum of $300 was received from the ladies' auxiliary to be applied on the building.

A joint meeting will be held tonight of the Lions and Legionnaires to discuss the possibility and ways and means of raising money to build a new hall in Innisville.

Daily Deeds, Not Symbols Are Urged

The proposition that the essence of the teachings of the great Master, Christ, is not to be found in material symbols but in daily deeds, will be discussed in Christian Science churches Sunday afternoon at the reading, "Sacrament."

The lesson-reading contains the passage: "And as they were calling, Jesus took bread and blessed it, and broke it, and gave it to the disciples, and said, 'Take, eat; this is my body.' (Matthew 26:26)"

Confusion On Mission Work Is Cleared Up

The Western Baptist, a newspaper of activities of the Baptist church in Western Canada, has published an article to dispel two misunderstandings that have arisen regarding missionary work.

The paper states that contrary to belief, a candidate for Foreign Mission work need not be a member of the church. It is sufficient that he not attended one of the approved training schools.

Anyone who has the necessary experience of salvation of Jesus Christ, who has been baptized in the name of the Father, Son and Holy Spirit, who has a valid baptism, who is a member of a Convention Baptist Church in Canada and has been training given in the Manual, is eligible for missionary work.

The other statement deals with financial support of work for the laity in the field.

The article specifies that all who wish to contribute to the legacy of the church should be given the opportunity to do so.

YMCA Outgrows City, Says Ready

Secretary Tells Need for More Facilities; Drive Starts Jan. 24

Edmonton's YMCA building, completed 43 years ago to serve a city of 15,000, is still serving—in a city of 150,000.

"We cannot rightly compare our Y building to the Model T era, because the Model T Ford is too modern," says J. Clark Reedy, general secretary.

"Our Y was built in the days of the democrat and the surly with the fringe on top. The space available for conducting Y program activities is now hopelessly inadequate."

Needs of youth in booming Edmonton are challenging and insistent. Unless private and public interest to youth keep pace with general programs, "we will not be able to develop a generation of citizens capable of carrying responsibility that will face them tomorrow," according to Mr. Reedy.

EXPANSION URGED

If the YMCA is to succeed in its attempt to meet needs and interests of Edmonton youth, long-range plans for expansion and modernization must be implemented.

"We have already had 'X' Mr. Reedy emphasizes.

Its regular practice for Y officials to press dormitory rooms into use as club rooms because of the shortage of meeting space.

STUDENTS WILL DEBATE ACTIVITIES OF LABOR

Labor unions will get a working over at the hands of college debaters next Friday when the annual western university McGoun Cup debates are held.

Sixteen students from the universities of Alberta, British Columbia, Saskatchewan and Manitoba will argue the question, "Resolved that the activities of labor unions are a detriment to Canadian welfare."

The university whose two debating teams receive the most points wins the McGoun Cup, emblematic of intercollegiate debating supremacy in western universities.

Lorne Calhoun and Sidney Linstedt will uphold the affirmative for the University of Alberta against a Saskatchewan team next Friday in Convocation Hall at 8 p.m.

At the same time, Terrance Nugent and Carver Wenas will defend the negative against UBC team at Vancouver. A second UBC team will meet Manitoba at Winnipeg and Manitoba will also debate with Saskatchewan at Saskatoon.

Three judges will decide the result of the debate in each city, with each of their votes contributing to the total point score of each university.

Niagara Road To Be Built

NIAGARA FALLS, Jan. 13.—(CP)—A 7,000-foot-long scenic highway, a quarter of it carved out of solid rock, will be built along the Canadian shore of the Niagara river from Niagara Glen to the Queenston power house. It was announced.

The board of directors has therefore mapped a long-range program of expansion and modernization.

First unit has already started—construction of a new wing at the front of the present ancient structure. It will house boys' games room, health club, club rooms, an all-purpose room for teen-age youth, as well as two floors of dormitories.

In addition, a new regulation-size swimming pool and a new gymnasium will be built within the superstructure of the old building.

Total cost of the first unit is estimated at $275,000 and a drive for funds opens January 24.

Drivers Exonerated In City Fatalities

No Blame Attached In Deaths of Edmonton Men

Drivers of two cars involved in Edmonton's 14th and 15th traffic deaths during 1950 were completely exonerated by a coroner's jury Friday afternoon at the police station.

Leonard Anton was cleared of any blame in the death of Frank Notigal, 62, who died in Royal Alexandra Hospital Dec. 31—some seven months after he was knocked down by Anton's car at 101 street and 306 avenue at 8 p.m.

Anton said he was coming over the rise of the 101 street subway when Notigal suddenly appeared in front of the car. He said his visibility was poor and the accident occurred several feet from the corner of 100 avenue.

Dr. M. M. Cantor who conducted the inquest said Notigal—a ward of the Salvation Army—died of bronchial pneumonia. In the accident, he suffered a fractured pelvis.

NO AUTOPSY HELD

Police said streets were in a slippery condition the night of the accident.

Gordon McNeill, 1984-48 street, was killed in an accident Dec. 28 when the car he was a passenger in skidded into the path of an oncoming oil truck.

McNeill died of a broken neck and fractured skull. No autopsy was held.

ROAD SLIPPERY

Stan Reynar of Leduc, driver of the truck, told court he saw the oncoming car, driven by Stewart Neil, also of 1984-48 street, skidding to the left out of control and into across the road.

He swerved his three-ton truck into the ditch but was unable to avoid the crash.

Neil told the court he felt the right rear wheel drop as if it had slipped off onto the shoulder of the road. He then said the car skidded and slid into the truck with the rear of the car hitting the left front of the truck. The car was demolished.

Police said the road was very slippery and icy at the time.

Crippled Children Stage Gallant Battle in Alberta Red Cross Hospital

IF YOU think big, strong thoughts, weak little legs are sure to get strong. That's what pretty little Gwynne of Dawson Creek says as she gamely exercises in Calgary Red Cross hospital for Alberta crippled children.

LITTLE DARLENE does body raises, exercises under supervision of nurse Florence Sharp. She hopes to be home soon.

THIS HUSKY two-year-old boy from south Alberta may have two strikes on him to start with but he's a cinch to hit a home run yet. Polio necessitates heavy pads on baby's feet.

THERE'S NOTHING like making plans for future early. Ten-year-old Garth of Sunnyside farming district says he's going to farm and drive tractor when he grows up. In meantime he's making amazing recovery from spastic paralysis in Red Cross hospital at Calgary.

Saturday Samplings

Smartest person in our town: The housewife who did her Saturday shopping on Friday.

This means war. The grand insult was received by me at Calgary yesterday from attractive May Johnstone. Said May by way of greeting: "And how are things with you Edmondlans?"

A guy couldn't get insulted by a nicer person.

Out city hall scribe, Art Etter, just handed me a letter he received from Harry Ainlay out in Hammond, B.C.

You'll all be glad to know Harry is getting along just fine.

He notes in his letter that Mayor Parsons is having quite a siege of sickness. In this respect, Ex-Mayor Ainlay offers the observation that lack of ventilation in the mayor's office at the Civic Block is the cause of chief magistrate's having chronic bronchial trouble.

Our same Art Etter also passed me a note from ex-city engineer A. W. "Bill" Haddow. Bill and Mrs. Haddow have been enjoying themselves in and around Toronto for some months.

They hope to pay a two months' visit to Britain, sailing in mid-March from New York.

Wonder if the Atomic Energy Commission, The United Nations and Royal Humane Society know about this?

I mean what University of Alberta physicist Dr. D. B. Scott is doing to a pig.

Because Dr. Scott is going to make a pig radio active. He told me so himself right in the lobby of the York Hotel in Calgary night before last.

It's bad enough for these scientific guys to send a poor little pig through an oil pipeline, but when you make the porker radio active, that's just going too darn far.

Of course things aren't so bad as all that. What Dr. Scott is doing is making that little metal cleaning pig oil companies blow through new pipelines, radio active.

Once in a while the pig gets stuck in the pipe. Then oilmen have a heck of a time finding it.

So along comes Dr. Scott who gives the metal pig a shot of radio activity. When the pig gets stuck a man walks along the pipeline with a geiger counter. Where the counter starts going wild, that's where the pig is. Just a sort of a jolly game of unipig sticking in the atomic age.

A comfortable goodnight to all and especially to people who get their feet wet.

JUSTICE IN ACTION

Ins-And-Outs of Justice Cost City Cabbie $35

The ins-and-out of Canadian justice cost city-cab driver Keith Morris a $35 fine in police court last night before his counsel put up a terrific battle for his client Friday.

Morris was charged before Magistrate S. G. Main with driving while disqualified. He pleaded not guilty. Then the lawyer W. G. K. Blum took over.

Morris had his license suspended in October, 1949. When he tried to renew it in March 1950, the board refused his application until he could prove financial responsibility.

Consequently when he was charged with driving while disqualified, he had no license.

Blum argued, "How can you suspend something that does not exist?"

"We are not charged with driving while the right to drive is suspended but charged with driving while the license is suspended," he maintained.

"The six-month suspension is over."

Therefore, I have no alternative but to find you guilty and fine you $35," he stated.

Magistrate Main stated that on a similar case last year, when he tried to renew it in March 1950, the board refused his application until he could prove financial responsibility.

Consequently when he was charged with driving while disqualified, he had no license.

Crippled Children Stage Noble Fight

By Jack DeLong

They don't give crippled kids medals for being brave. Perhaps it's just as well. If they did, there'd be a big shortage of medals.

If you pay a visit to the Provincial Red Cross hospital for crippled children in Calgary, you will observe courage so ennobling that tears come to your eyes.

In this hospital are gallant little patients who have lost two limbs on their faces as long as they can remember.

They are the little folk who came into the world with crippling deformities that prevent their enjoying most of the joys of the majority of children.

Then there are the tots who did not come into the world with crippling deformities but who were struck by the great polio epidemic, the dread poliomyelitis.

FOR MOTORISTS Emergency Service Is Planned

A telephone service to provide emergency aid and information to motorists in Edmonton may be adopted by the Alberta Motor Association and the Automobile Traders' Association.

It developed out of a suggestion by AMA branch chairman Jack Hogg to a directors' meeting yesterday that a phone number be available to connect motorists needing emergency aid with garages providing such service.

Director R. H. Turnbull, who is also an ATA member, approved a plan whereby a garage would give a phone answering service to give such aid. And AMA General Manager Walker Blake said the service could also enable the AMA to give road information to motorists after its office closed.

Secret Report Presented As City Board Is Revived

A "top secret" report featured last night's meeting which brought Edmonton's long-dormant Industrial Development Board back to life.

Its members resolutely determined to "do something"—though exactly what they will do wasn't specifically defined.

Charles Garnett, a member of Commerce committee, accepted the chairmanship "on the basis that the board will meet regularly and do something."

Other members were equally outspoken on the need for action.

NEWSPAPER reporters were excluded from the meeting while Industrial Commissioner Graham Curtis gave a verbal report.

When they were invited back, reporters were told that Mr. Curtis had discussed "something so secret he had to whisper it."

Negotiations are proceeding with several large companies wishing to locate here, and the names must be kept secret pending conclusion of the deal, Garnett explained.

"This body has a great potential," said Acting Mayor Bill Hawerjak. "We should give it function."

were delegated to draw up a draft constitution for presentation at the Feb. 2 meeting.

Yesterday's meeting was called after city council instructed commissioners to reassemble the board, which has not functioned for several years.

Chairman of Commerce had refused to name representatives to the board unless it had assurance the body would function properly.

But after council's "reassurance order," the Chamber named Mr. Garnett, J. A. Tupper, and R. W. Griffith as 1951 representatives.

LITTLE PEOPLE'S INTRODUCTION TO FORMAL EDUCATION IMPORTANT TO FUTURE

GRADE ONE CLASSROOM is setting for transition between home and school life. Educationists everywhere realize need of keeping transition as gentle and natural as possible. First taste of reading, "rime" and "rhyme" is happily combined with plenty of opportunity for self-expression. Flexible plan of day's work for six-year-olds may include drawing, games, little plays, coloring, printing, cutting and pasting paper figures or pictures. Classroom furnishings of modern schools include movable desks, tables, chairs... all geared to just-size... pictures of babies, toys, pets, children and of course paste-pots, scissors and construction-type

LITTLE BLACK SAMBO HUNTED BY FIERCE JUNGLE TIGER

ALL THE WORLD'S A STAGE FOR SIX-YEAR-OLD DRAMATISTS

PLAYIN' "GROWN-UP" is favorite pastime for youngsters of assorted ages. For Grade One pupils it's part of daily fare as they learn to control and express their ideas and personalities. Children love to play-act stories, songs, verses. When they've finished their work, teacher allows them to play "house" in a far-flung bungalow in one corner of room. Jimmy Loe, left, Marjorie Hodgins, Ralph Garrett, Jane Ainsie Boulier play "tea party."

MODERN READING PROGRAM TEACHES WORD UNDERSTANDING

LEARNING TO READ is not the laborious process of yesterday when alphabet memory-work was a trial and a chore. Modern educators know value of encouraging reading interest. Youngsters appreciate word-meaning when their introduction to reading is made with picture books and actual model illustrations. SHOPPING GUIDE

Mid-Winter Holiday Sounds Like Economy

By Ben Thrifty
If I only had a unicorn I'd be on the merry way to the Caribbean Islands.
You wouldn't think that cold, bare statement quite so odd or bare if you knew what I know... And just because I can't keep secrets I'll tell you:
A five-room villa, complete with shady palms, sunshine and all the romance of the semi-tropics... is renting to a family of four for $12.00 per week... at a velvety, velvety post resort in the Bahamas.

Now listen to this: Each villa has a lounge, two double bedrooms with shower in bath facilities, spacious kitchen equipped with an electric washing machine, stove, refrigerator and electric ironer.

Food, old cashmere sweaters, glass and leather goods sell at a song... and besides it never gets too cold or too hot.
Well... here we are!

I've been desperately trying to avoid the subject of new-season fashions and prophesied price shifts in same.
But time for wardrobe budgeting draws nearer and nearer... and the whole business is just as awesome as the great big saw that did the same thing.
For we're in will be paying as much as 10 or 15 per cent more for our summer sundress frocks... our Easter Parade finery... and all the in-betweens of mid-winter wardrobe.

Woolens particularly will be higher 'n higher as U.S.A. and Great Britain are busy stock-piling their wool supplies. And this country's greater demand... resulting of course in higher prices for the likes of you 'n me.
Cottons have been trickling up-stream in the river of rising prices. Competition among designers and manufacturers has kept them in the painful but profitable "range" but war-time sales booms will knock all that for the provincial local... and cottons will fluctuate a 10 per cent price increase by summer months.

Leather follows suit... no guard your shoelaces... wear your rubbers... save your good footwear for "special occasions" year.

Production of flatware, jewelry and numerous other items categorized as luxuries, has been cut 'n cut... both in the United States and Canada.
So once again we'll have to learn the take-care tricks of preserving our favorite silver and jewelry.

I meant to mention a little handy hint when I was playing the "look out for leather" letters on my typewriter.
So here it is: Put new gloves in a damp cloth for an hour before wearing them. Making the cloth more pliable, it guards against splitting.

DOROTHY DIX SAYS

Family Makes Homemaking Her Most Important Job

DEAR MISS DIX: I dispute strongly all that is said about women's place being in the home.

I believe that the absolute lightning-down of women to their own fire-side has been their complete downfall and has made them morose, irrational, narrow-minded and selfish. Woman should be a team and companion to man.

AN INTERESTED READER.
ANSWER: Whether a woman's place is in the home or not depends on the woman and her individual talents and inclinations and circumstances and on the home. You cannot lay down hard and fast rule on the subject.

There are women that nature never intended to be housewives. There are other women to whom home is the realization of every ambition and dream. Home isn't a prison to all women, as you may seem to think it is.

Nor are all home-keeping women stupid and narrow and neurotic. To vast numbers of women home-making is the most interesting and exciting and satisfying occupation on earth. They find joy in expressing their artistic taste by making their homes beautiful.

They make of cooking a fine art. And they have a sense of supreme satisfaction in knowing they are making a place of peace and rest and comfort for their husbands and giving their children an environment that will develop all that is good in their characters.

To be on Fashion —
Ladies in Silk Shirts
Time was when a silk shirt was every man's dream of goodness. Then it vanished from the man's fashion world and has now reappeared as a top-ranking blouse fashion for women this Spring.
These new silk shirts are a far step from the traditional classic shirts. They are softly styled and utterly feminine—as are all fashions in this troubled era, as a matter of fact.
The newest and smartest silk shirts have low-buttoning collars to go with the newly revived one-button suits. But there are also soft little bow necks, and tiny mandarin collars for those who prefer high necklines—as well as regular shirt collars of course.

Best Way to Learn to Dance Is by Constant Practice
By Josephine Lowman
Q. "I entered school here last year.
I got sort of popular. However, I cannot dance. I haven't money to go to dancing school. Please tell me what to do."
A. I think it is important for you to learn to dance. You will be left out of many good times if you do not know how. Why not ask some girl who is a good friend to teach you after a little time to not be timid about accepting dancing dates because the best way to learn is to dance. If a boy really likes you he won't mind.
Q. "Some time ago you printed an exercise to help the muscular period. I have forgotten it. Will you repeat?"
A. Lie on the floor on your back. Bend both knees and place feet on the floor. Push your shoulders up toward the ceiling and pull it back toward your back. The hips remain on the floor. Do it very slowly.
Q. "My butt measures 36 inches, my waist 28 inches and my hips 38 inches. You can see that I am terribly out of proportion. Please tell me what measurements I should have."
A. You are NOT terribly out of proportion at all. Perfection would be—36 waist, 36 hips, 36, but few women can achieve

Baker Recommends Rough Up Cakes.
BUFFALO, N.Y.—(UP)—The nation's top cake baker advises commercial bakers to give a "little rough" with their products to give them a "home-made" appearance.
W. E. Hall, Baker of Peterborough, N.H., told over 400 bakers of this area that while the professional craftsmen have the skill and science to turn out better-baked goods than the average housewife, the home-made cake and pie are the ones that look as though they were home-made.

Pioneer Says Youth Today Is Too Soft

COOKSON, Sask. Jan. 6.—(CP)—Jack Cookson, 27, and lived in the pioneer days of northern Saskatchewan, says that if the present generation had to go through what the pioneers did "it would kill them. It didn't kill first."

Born in 1884 at Prince Albert, 77 years ago and still cuts his own firewood. He claims the majority of youngsters nowadays "don't seem to have what it takes. They're too soft, living with all modern conveniences and relying on the push-button system."

His mother died when he was four, and he was 16 when his father died. So he took up freighting, first with oxen, then with horses.

Freighting supplies through the north to Hudson Bay ports brought narrow escapes when wagon teams plunged through lake ice. The teams carried heavy loads of groceries, drygoods and trapping supplies.

He said the route he took most often was through Big River, Pelly, Dawson, and then to the coast. The 400-mile return trip took a month or longer, with no shelter, eating or getting.

Synthetic Rubber Being Improved Under Stress

MINNEAPOLIS — (UP) — Chemists at the University of Minnesota are studying the behavior and properties of synthetic rubber for the federal office of rubber research.

Dr. J. M. Kohlstedt, head of the division of analytical chemistry, is credited with development of the solid rubber process by which synthetic rubber is made at freezing rather than high temperatures.

Kohlstedt and Dr. E. J. Strubbe, associate professor of analytical chemistry, are studying the molecular behavior and properties of synthetic rubber for the federal office of rubber research.

Kohlstedt and Strubbe are trying to find out exactly what the molecules of synthetic rubber ingredients do when they come to form the giant molecules of synthetic rubber.

The answers they obtain, Kohlstedt said, will make it possible to improve the quality of synthetic rubber.

High Speed Warm Air Economical to Install

Modern home planning and remodeling of older houses have brought about many revolutionary heating systems.

In spite of the sudden rise of radiant heating stimulated primarily by basementless houses, various systems of circulating warm air hold their popularity among home-owners.

ENGINEERED HUMIDITY

The desert-dry, roasted air that we breathe in the winter months, has been displaced by humidified warm air engineered to keep a house comfortable at all times.

One of the most interesting developments in this phase is a new high pressure warm air heating system which uses pre-insulated pipes instead of bulky finned air ducts. These pipes are readily installed in partitions and involve no structural changes in a house.

Developed by F. C. Coleman, of Wichita, Kans., who produced the famous pocket stove for GIs in World War II, this system works on a blend-air principle without requiring cold air returns to the heating plant. The pipes carry air heated to about 135 degrees at the volume of 30 cubic feet per minute.

Mixing chambers, about the size and directed into the room through an upper aperture.

The engineers figure that this recirculation reduces fuel consumption by 5 to 10 per cent.

Because of the small pipes used for ducts, such plants can be located on the ground floor of a basementless house, with pipes spreading downward from the attic. When placed in a basement, the plant economizes on overhead space.

The ease of installation, requiring no cutting of wall plaster, makes it especially expedient in giving older houses a central heating plant.

BOURNEMOUTH, Eng. — (CP) — George Miles, 42, was tired of seeing his wife tumble in her hand-bag in the dark for a match.

He invented a "flouidant" hand-bag which is being put on the market.
